Start relaxed at the Tourist Info in the direction of the town center, past pretty houses and old farms. At the Church of St Pankratius, the path leads directly to the Grünbühel and Barfusspark/ barefoot park. If you feel like it, take off your shoes and feel the great nature or move in the Kneipp basin.

You walk further to the Protestant mountain church, a special feature of our town. Follow the path a little further. The Hausbachweg path to the Festsaal begins at the miniature golf course and continues in the direction of the town center. At the Sparkasse, the path leads right into Unterbergstraße. Walk through newly built and modern houses back to the starting point.

Refreshments can be found in town.
